

Senior Automotive Welder Fabricator - Job Description

General Description

Under direct supervision, the Welder/Fabricator will weld, fabricate, and restore high-end custom automotive chassis and parts as needed; in addition, they will have the opportunity to develop, design and build parts for the motorsports team. Organization, cleanliness and punctuality must come naturally to be successful. They will be directly supporting and impacting Crown's mission statement and ethos.

Schedule

- Monday - Friday, 7:00 AM to 5:00 PM, minimum with overtime as needed.

Essential Functions

- Weld, fabricate and restore high-end automotive chassis and parts.
- Prepare and fabricate parts to engineering specifications.
- Properly fit/align parts and panels according to design specifications.
- Prepares and stages upcoming production builds prior to them being needed by team.
- Interpret manuals, design specifications, technical blueprints, SAE, and metric drawings.
- Inspects both raw materials and finished products for conformance to quality specifications
- Must have ability to inventory and price labor and materials
- Use expertise and knowledge base to make recommendations in design and implementation.
- Work within both the 'Crown Customs' and 'Crown Racing' teams to successfully apply needed skills.

Minimum Qualifications

- 8-10 years of related work experience in an automotive (chassis/parts), restoration, manufacturing, and or assembly environment or related, applicable fabrication field.
- Experience in GTAW (TIG) welding process and GMAW (MIG) welding process
- General automotive knowledge and knowledge of fabrication, machining/welding equipment setup, process, and maintenance
- Basic knowledge of plasma cam software, how to read engineering prints, machining processes, and material specifications are recommended
- Knowledge of headers, full exhaust and suspension is a plus

Software Tools

- Google Docs, Google Sheets, Google Calendar, Gmail

Interviewing Process

- If you meet the qualifications, we will call or email you. We will have a short phone interview, then If you pass the phone interview, the final step will be an in-person interview and an applied skills test.

Compensation and Benefits

- Competitive starting pay based on skills, experience and relevant education.
- Overtime Pay
- Paid Time off
- Health insurance
- 401K
- Continuous learning opportunities and advancement within the company